stood that the most important news he has spoken of as existing between Mr. Burton, our Minister at Bogota, and the Columbian Government, will soon be arrived.

A House special says the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs came to no conclusion yesterday in regard to the foreign appointments before them. It is understood that both Cowan and Dix will be reported against.

Mr. Smith's letter to Mr. Motley is looked upon by Senators as most insulting and undignified, and it is considered that Mr. Motley was in self-respect compelled to resign. The committee will therefore report again any one nomination.

With regard to the gold sales, the Senate Finance Committee favor the present policy of the Secretary of the Treasury.
They have not yet disposed of the gold bill.

The Ways and Means Committee were engaged yesterday on the tax bill. They will not report it, however, till they get the tariff bill, so as to adjust these two measures.

No conclusion has been reached concerning the compound-interest notes, which the compound-interest notes, valued at over fifteen millions, have been withdrawn from circulation and canceled since July last.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.
High Republican authority is emphatic that the impeachment farce will amount to nothing. Democrats say impeachment will not take place.
